ABSTRACT

[Write a concise summary of the research background, purpose, objectives, methodology, principal findings and conclusion. Do not include citations, undefined abbreviations or extensive tables/figures in the abstract.]

Keywords: [Keyword 1]; [Keyword 2]; [Keyword 3]; [Keyword 4]; [Keyword 5]

1. INTRODUCTION

[Introduce the study background, research problem, relevance of the topic, research gap and objectives.]

2. LITERATURE REVIEW

[Summarise relevant scholarly literature and establish the academic context for the present study. This section may be combined with the introduction where appropriate.]

3. MATERIALS AND METHODS / METHODOLOGY

[Describe study design, materials or datasets, sampling, instruments, procedures and analytical or statistical methods clearly enough for the work to be understood or reproduced.]

4. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

[Present findings in a clear, logical order. Number tables and figures consecutively, cite each in the text, and discuss their relevance in relation to earlier work.]

5. CONCLUSION

[State the principal outcomes, contribution, limitations where relevant, and possible future research directions.]

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS / FUNDING / CONFLICT OF INTEREST

[Include these declarations where applicable.]

REFERENCES

[List only cited sources. Follow the citation and reference style required by the journal. Include DOI information for a source where it is available.]
